HOW TO BEHAVE IN ONLINE CLASSES

BY TEACHER PAUL PARKER

Proper etiquette is nothing new for most people. You grew up with your parents constantly telling you to mind your manners. But in a digital age where the unwritten online "rules" are constantly changing, proper netiquette may seem a bit mystifying. Add in the atmosphere of an online classroom, and suddenly the proper netiquette guidelines don't seem as easy as a simple "please" and "thank you."

As you might have guessed, netiquette is essentially rules and norms for interacting with others on the internet in a considerate, respectful way. We enlisted several experts to set some guidelines to make sure your online manners are up to par.

NETIQUETTE GUIDELINES

EVERY ONLINE STUDENT NEEDS TO KNOW

- NO YELLING, PLEASE
- Sarcasm can (and will) backfire
- Don't abuse the chat box
- Attempt to find your own answer
- Stop ... grammar time!
- Set a respectful tone
- Submit files the right way

"Online learning is rapidly becoming one of the most cost-effective ways to educate the world's rapidly expanding workforce."

UPCOMING SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

BY TEACHER PAUL PARKER

Extracurricular activities offer kids a chance to explore new interests that are not part of the regular school curriculum.

Extracurricular activities also provide fun and enjoyment, which can help keep kids motivated about school when their school work becomes challenging.

Extracurricular activities help children gain new skills, learn to socialize, gain leadership ability and learn more about their own interests.
