Weather in the UK

The weather affects everyone, and everyone has something to say about the weather. This is especially true in a country like the UK that has very changeable weather. In the UK the weather from one day to the next can be completely different, or even from the morning to the afternoon. The weather can change from being rainy one day to sunny the next, or from strong wind and gales in the morning to snow in the afternoon.

In the UK there are four seasons, spring, summer, autumn and winter, and the weather is different in each of them. However, there is not a sudden change between the seasons. The end of the winter season is the same as the start of the spring season. It takes several weeks for the weather to change enough for people to notice the difference.

The summer is the season with the best weather. In general, it is hot and sunny with only a little rain sometimes. However, it can sometimes be cold and wet for one or two weeks at a time. British people like to spend a lot of time outside when it is nice in the summer. After the summer is the autumn. In this season the weather gets colder and there are stronger winds, also it will rain more. All the leaves will start to fall off the trees as it is cold. Frost might start to form on the ground towards the end of the autumn.

Winter is the coldest season in the UK. The temperature will often be at zero degrees Celsius. This means that ice will often form on the ground overnight where there were puddles. This makes it difficult to walk sometimes. There might also be snow, but the UK does not get much snow, mainly just cold rain in the winter. Then when winter ends the spring starts. The temperature will start to get warmer and the winds will not be as strong. Plants start to grow again and new leaves form. It is always nice when the spring starts as it means the nice weather in the summer is nearly back again.

Many people in the UK complain about the weather, but as the weather changes so much it is very interesting and gives the people something to talk about all year round.

EVALUACIÓN:

EVALUATION

1. Read the two conversations, and check the unknown words

2. Keeping in mind the conversation, create the new one.

Conversation 1

Situation: Lucy and Jane talk about the weather and eating lunch.

Jane: Hi, do you want to go and get some lunch?

Lucy: Yes that would be great.

Jane: I want to try the new café on the corner of the High Street.

Lucy: Are you sure, it's very small and we may have to sit outside.

Jane: Yes that's why I want to go. It's autumn already and the weather might not be good for eating outside again until the spring.

Lucy: It looks as if it might rain soon. There has been some drizzle this morning.

Jane: No, the sky is clear and you can see the sun. That will make it warm.

Lucy: But there's a gusty wind that makes it a bit chilly.

Jane: We can wear out coats. It's been overcast for weeks. I want to sit in the sun for a bit.

Lucy: Ok, but if it starts to snow we have to go inside, alright.

Conversation 2

Situation: It has snowed and Tui is excited as it is the first time she has seen snow.

Tui: Hi. Isn't the snow great? I've been playing in it all morning.

Andrew: Yes, new snow makes everything look very pretty and white.

Jane: Snow is nice at the start, but when it's turning to slush it gets nasty.

Tui: Maybe, but this is the first time I've ever seen snow. It's great.

Jane: Do you ever have snow in Thailand?

Tui: No, we never have snow. It's too hot.

Andrew: So this must be fun?

Tui: Yes very fun. I stayed up late last night watching the snowstorm as the gusts of wind blew the snow.

Jane: Then this morning the sky was clear and the sun was shining on the new snow. That was good to see.

Tui: How long will the snow last before it melts?

Andrew: If the weather and temperature stay cold at about zero degrees Celsius then the snow could be here for several days or a week.

Tui: Great. I want to play in it as much as possible. Do you want to come outside with me?

Jane: Sure, I can do that.

Andrew: Yes, that'll be something good to do.
