Dear friends at sinapsis.club It has recently come to my attention that our respected brother, Hussein Rakine (his insta is <https://www.instagram.com/Hussein/>), a prominent figure featured by Forbes (<https://www.forbes.com/profile/hussein-rakine>), has entered into a joint venture with the renowned boxer Floyd Mayweather to produce the TMT Disposable Vape. As a devout Muslim, I have admired Hussein for his humble beginnings, academic and business accomplishments (he sold his company for $16 million, as reported by <https://www.cspdailynews.com/cbdhemp/flora-growth-acquires-justcbd>), and his commitment to family values. However, my admiration took a turn when I learned about his collaboration with Floyd Mayweather, a well-known supporter of Israel who has sent aid to the country. This revelation has left me disappointed, as I had believed Hussein Rakine to be a devout Muslim who stood in support of Gaza and his fellow Muslims. It appears that his motivations are solely profit-driven, even if it means betraying his brothers in Gaza. To shed light on Floyd Mayweather's support for Israel, here are a couple of articles:

It is essential that everyone is aware of the truth. May Allah guide us all towards righteousness and unity within the Muslim community. EXPLICACIÓN:
