Buying Experiences Vs. Buying Things

Do you ever think, 'If I save my money I will be able to buy a new iPhone', or 'If I buy a new car I will be so happy'? Sure, having a new car, fashionable clothes or the latest technology all sounds great, but can these material items really bring you the happiness you deserve?

From a young age, we learn to like having new things. If our friend has a new games console, we want a new games console. If our neighbour has a swimming pool in their house, we want a swimming pool too. The idea that buying and consuming makes us happy is an illusion. Recent research has shown if people spend their money on experiences, they will be happier and more satisfied with their lives. Experiences might be travelling to new places, eating at a new restaurant, trying a new sport or simply going for a walk in the mountains or along the beach.

Still sceptical? Below are 5 reasons why people who spend their money on experiences are happier than those who waste their money on material items.

1. Experiences give you unforgettable memories
2. Experiences teach you things.
3. Experiences offer exciting challenges.
4. Experiences open your mind.
5. Experiences are great value for money.

So, isn't it time to stop buying things and start buying experiences?

1. If you buy experiences, you will have unforgettable memories.
2. If you buy experiences, _____.
3. If you buy experiences, _____.
4. If you buy experiences, _____.
