GRAMMAR:

Past Simple

A: What time did you get home yesterday?

B: I got home at 7 o'clock. I had dinner and went to bed. Used to:

- Karen didn't used to work out when she was younger.
- She used to spend her time surfing the Net.

1. El pasado simple se utiliza para hablar de una acción concreta que comenzó y acabó en el pasado. En este caso equivale al pretérito indefinido español. Generalmente, lo usamos con adverbios de tiempo como "last year", "yesterday", "last night"...

¿Cuándo utilizamos el pasado simple en inglés?

Lo utilizamos en cuatro situaciones:

1. Cuando queremos hablar de una acción que ocurrió en el pasado y terminó en el pasado e indicamos el tiempo en el que ocurrió la acción (“anoche” y “ayer”). Observa los siguientes ejemplos:

- Last night I played soccer (Anoche jugué fútbol)
- I wrote a letter yesterday (Escribí una carta ayer)

2. Cuando hablamos de una acción que era habitual en el pasado; como cuando hablamos de nuestra infancia:

- I played soccer all day long when I was a child (Jugaba fútbol todo el día cuando era niño)
- When my sister was younger, she wrote letters to my parents. (Cuando mi hermana era más joven, escribía cartas para mis padres)

3. Para hablar de hechos conectados en una secuencia de tiempo cronológica en el pasado.

- Last night I arrived home, cooked dinner and went directly to bed. (Anoche llegué a casa, cociné la cena y me fui directamente a la cama.)

2. el verbo modal “used to” para indicar algo que ocurría o sucedía en el pasado de manera habitual. También, se utiliza para algo que antes era verdad pero ya no lo es. Como con los otros verbos modales, “used to” está seguido por la forma base del verbo (el infinitivo sin “to”).

Hay dos formas de traducir esta expresión: Solía y Acostumbraba a. Ambas opciones significan lo mismo. Ejemplos:

- He used to play the piano with Simon and his granddad. / Él solía tocar la guitarra con Simón y con su abuelo.
- She used to drive her brother’s car when he was not home. / Ella acostumbraba a conducir el auto de su hermano cuando él no estaba en casa.

JUVENILE LAWS

Laws affect our lives every day, but people have very different opinions about what should be legal and what should be illegal, depending on where they live.

Entertainment
Teens around the world hang out at malls. In some places, however, they might have to bring their mom along to get in in the future. In some states of the U.S.A., the law says that after a certain hour people under 16 can't go to the mall without an adult. Store owners complain that crowds of teenagers frighten away other customers. Teens also enjoy playing video games that feature a lot of violence. Be careful! In Illinois, for example, it is forbidden for anyone under 18 to buy games featuring violence.

Pets
In the U.K., teenagers can get a pet at the age of 12. Many people, however, believe that this is too young and a new law should increase the age to 16. They say that a 12-year-old might be excited about the pet at first, but later might get tired of taking care of the animal and neglect it. On the other hand, many think that kids make responsible pet owners.

Work
Do you know at what age teens are legally allowed to work? In the U.S.A., it's 14 and in the U.K., 13. However, if their parents own the business, they can work even when they're younger. In India, teens can work at 14, with no limits on the number of hours, but they can't work in dangerous industries. In the U.S.A., any teen under 16 operating machinery is breaking

Marriage
The ancient Romans allowed girls to get married at 12 and boys at 14, without their parents' consent. In Scotland, this law was applied until 1929, but not many people got married so young. In the Middle Ages, however, marriages at 12 or 13 were common, but life was harder and shorter then and people didn't live to be much older than 30. Today, in the U.K.

Safety
There are lots of laws to protect people and keep them safe, but people don't agree on what is safe and what isn't. In Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Finland and in most states of the U.S.A. it is mandatory for cyclists of all ages to wear a helmet. In some states of the U.S.A., only those 12 years and younger have to wear one. However, in the U.K., bicycle helmets are not required. Many argue that helmets may not prevent injuries and that some teens may not take up cycling because of the way they look.
