PHOBIAS

NICK Jenny, shall we go into the reptile house?

JENNY Oh, all right, but I hate snakes and lizards. I've got a phobia about them.

NICK So has Ben. I asked him if he would like to come in with us, but he refused.

JENNY I don't like it here. It would be awful if a snake escaped. Is that possible?

NICK I don't suppose so. They're all behind glass. Look at this lizard. You can hardly see it when it's on that branch. Do you think that's to protect it from its enemies?

JENNY I expect so. Did you notice that it was a different colour when it was lying on those leaves in the corner?

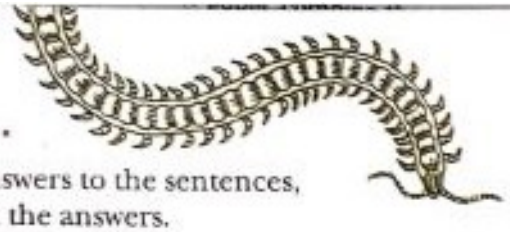

NICK Yes, I did. Look at this snake! It's at least five metres long. I'm glad it's behind glass: I wouldn't like to meet one in the wild.

JENNY Neither would I! I thought you weren't scared, Nick.

NICK Don't be silly! Of course I'm not scared. Look at those crocodiles.

JENNY They're huge! I wonder how much they eat every day. Nick, you look awful. Would you like to leave?

NICK Yes, I think so. We shouldn't have come in here. I'm going to have bad dreams about being chased by hungry crocodiles!
