

PROPÓSITO:

Students will learn the importance and the use of the verb to be in present.

Students will practice how to use the verb to be to talk about them and to describe people.

MOTIVACIÓN:

Observe the sentences and underline what those sentences have in common.

The slide has a light gray background with decorative floral and leaf patterns in the top-left and bottom-right corners. At the top, the title "WHAT DO THEY HAVE IN COMMON?" is written in green and blue. Below the title, a yellow box contains a list of sentences. To the right of the box is a circular photograph of a young woman with long, curly brown hair, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, smiling. The bottom of the slide is decorated with a green grass-like border.

WHAT DO THEY HAVE IN COMMON ?

SHE IS COLOMBIAN.
DANIEL IS HANDSOME.
CAMILA AND ANDRÉS ARE FRIENDS.
THE CAR IS BROKEN.
WE ARE DOCTORS.
THEY ARE MARRIED.
I AM PAULA.

EXPLICACIÓN:

Observe the document, take notes and if you have questions, do not hesitate in asking.

EXPLANATION

EJERCICIOS:

Download the document and complete the exercises in the notebook

EXERCISES

EVALUACIÓN:

Realizar todos los ejercicios del archivo "Exercises"

BIBLIOGRAFÍA: