Australia - Where Everything is Bigger and Better

Come to wonderful Australia, where everything is bigger and better! Come visit Sydney, Australia's biggest city with a population of 4.9 million people. It is just a little bit bigger than Melbourne which has 4.5 million people. It's an incredible city which is famous for the Sydney Opera House where they have theatre and music shows. Sydney's climate is also warmer than Melbourne's but the hottest regions of Australia are the Northern Territory and Western Australia.

Australia is also famous for some of the most astonishing natural wonders that exist on planet earth. For example the Great Barrier Reef in Queensland is the largest coral reef in the world, and Uluru which is located in the Northern Territory has also been declared the largest rock in the world.

And for reptiles and spider lovers, Australia is also famous for some not so friendly varieties of nature. We have some of the most venomous snakes and spiders in the world. In fact the Funnel Web Spider is the most poisonous spider in the world, just behind the Brazilian Wandering spider.

So if you like fascinating architecture and wonderful nature (that includes venomous snakes and spiders!), be sure to come visit sunny Australia!

2. Answer the questions based on the tourist brochure.

2. Read Johan's description of his home city and then write a short description of your city.

Hi! My name is Johan and I'm from Mexico City in Mexico. It is the largest city in Mexico with more than 8.8 million people. In fact Mexico has more than 120 million people! The city is surrounded by beautiful mountains and volcanoes and inside the city there are many famous buildings from the Aztec period, especially the Aztec Templo Mayor. We also have Chapultepec, which is one of the biggest urban parks in the world!

Mexico City only has two seasons: the dry season from November to April and the wet or rainy season from May to October. Temperatures can go from 0°C in the wet season to 32°C in the dry season.

I love this city, but I can understand why many people find it very stressful. If you don't like cities, don't worry, Mexico also has some of the most beautiful beaches in the world.

So Welcome to Mexico!
