

The most beautiful thing in life is being in a quiet place full of nature with my family drinking a hot chocolate with the smell of wet earth and the sound of the birds singing happily while a beautiful and majestic rainbow full of colors appears in the sky.