

Drugs and Addictions.

Talk to these people and ask them why they destroy their lives, tell them the problems they would have due to those substances and teach them to do better things, like sports, study, exercise.

