live in a cave

It's a cool place in the summer and warm in the winter but can a cave be a home? Well, in China, caves are a popular choice for a home. 1 A These people are modern-day cave dwellers. Their caves are usually in the sides of hills and mountains. These unusual homes are earthquake-proof and friendly to the environment. Many of the cave homes are very comfortable with two to three rooms. 2 C They also have a kitchen with a fire area cooking outside. There is a large yard in front of each cave 3 E. Life is simple for the cave dwellers 4 D by living in the caves, they can save more flat land for planting crops. The children in the community go to school 5 F many of the cave dwellers can't imagine living in the big crowded cities of China and are quite happy with their crazy cave homes.

- A Here people can relax and enjoy the view of the countryside
- B Of course, this building is also a cave
- C Caves are home to over 30 million Chinese people
- D The caves are very small and dark inside
- E Some caves even have electricity and bathrooms
- F They are usually farmers
