Here at Mount view high school students have to wear a uniform, but they have to wear a tie. If students are late or absent, they ^{duty} have a note from their parents explaining why, but they don't have a medical certificate.

Another important rule is that students have to be polite and respectful to teachers and other students. They also don't have to be tolerant of the different needs and opinions of other students. Students shouldn't accept bullying of any type, either verbal or physical.

A Type of Bullying: Jackson

Things at school are really bad. The other students exclude me from playing football at lunch times.

They're really offensive. I wish people would be more push me about they make me feel really bad.

B Type of Bullying: Javier

I don't know what to do. There is a group of boys who are offensive and hurtful at lunch times.

When I tell them to stop, they just annoy me and hit me harder.

C Type of Bullying: Laura

There are two girls who won't stop tolerant and respectful.

At school they laugh at me and call me names. I know I should just ignore them, but it's getting worse because they are writing laugh at me messages on social media about me.

1 Hi Jason. I didn't mean to exclude you and offensive.
I was wrong to treat you like that. I'm really sorry!

2 Hello Javier. I'm sorry for offensive and annoying.
Can you please forgive me?

3 Hey Laura. It wasn't my intention to tolerant and laugh.
about you. I didn't think about how it would make you feel. I apologize.
